

Project Management for Executives

Training Outline

Overview

The Project Management for Executives Class is for Executives, Upper Managers and Key Organizational Decision-Makers.

The purpose of this course is to introduce attendees to “The Project Management Paradigm as the Way of Doing Business in the Twenty First Century.”

The emphasis of this course is on what Executive Decision-Makers should expect from their organization’s Project Management System and what Upper Managers and Executives should do to support their organization’s Project Management Efforts.

Course Content

- Brief Introduction To The Project Management Paradigm
- Business Reasons For Adopting The Project Management Paradigm
- Implications Of Adopting The Project Management Paradigm
- Project Management And Your Organization’s Strategic Plan
- How Project Management Informs The Corporate Decision-Making-Process
- What Decision-Makers Should Expect From Their Organization’s Project
Management System

- The Role Of Upper Management With Respect To Supporting The Project Management Process
- Implementing Project Management In Your Organization
- Understanding The Stresses That Your Project Managers Face
- The Need For Organizational Leadership In A Projectized Organization
- Setting Realistic Policies And Procedures For A Projectized Organization
- How Project Management Is Likely To Impact Your Organization
- Project Management And Your Organization's Knowledge Management System